PRESS RELEASE

Free Grain Marketing Seminars to be Held Throughout the State

FCS Financial is sponsoring seven grain marketing seminars around the state. This seminar is designed to help you learn more about grain marketing plans and other risk management tools.

Mark Gold of Top Third Ag Marketing will show you how to manage grain market volatility and risk. Learn how following 10 simple steps can help you market grain in the top third of the market. Gold is a veteran marketing expert with 20 years experience as a pit trader and floor broker with the Chicago Board of Trade. You'll also recognize him as a grain analyst on the radio, AG Day TV and US Farm Report.

Lunch or dinner will be provided at all seminars. Space is limited and advance reservations are required. To reserve your spot at any of the following meetings, call FCS Financial at 1-800-444-3276.
